LOCAL NEWS.

Brief Mention.

High water to-day at 9:21 a. m.
Buy a house—R. E. Baldwin.

Mr. and Mrs. C. P. Snow returned last night after an absence of three weeks in Boston and vicinity.

Attorney Edward L. Lindsley, who has been quite ill with a complication of ailments for the past week, is improving.

Chrysanthemums, Palms, Roses, Violets and Orchid show at Champion's Foyer, 1026 Chapel street. Everybody welcome.

Daniel A. and William J. Cahill were arrested last evening for refusing to pay their fares on one of the cars of the New Haven and Centerville road. They are charged with defrauding a railroad company.

Captain W. H. Barnard, who has charge of the booking for the excursion of the Putnam Phalanx of Hartford to Atlanta and the south, has about 225 names on his list and only about twenty-five more will be taken.

Rev. Timm of this city will deliver an address at reformation services at the German Lutheran Emanuel church in Meriden this evening. Rev. Mr. Zolinger of Torrington, Rev. Mr. Edman of Hartford and Rev. Mr. Blacker of Middletown will also speak.

Horse Thief in Derby.

The local police were last evening requested to be on the lookout for a team stolen Tuesday morning in Derby. The team was hired by a man early Tuesday morning, who said that he wanted to drive to Mt. Carmel.

The description given of the man is that he was of sallow complexion, about thirty years old, weighed about 150 pounds, and was dressed in dark clothes. On a fore hoof of the sorrel mare stolen and also on the top buggy were the numerals 2934.

Up to a late hour last night the police had not succeeded in locating either the team or the driver.

CHINCHILLA

In any form is attracting widespread attention. Its softness and natural beauty renders it particularly desirable for outside collars, trimmings and collarettes.

Dealing only in Furs that we fully vouch for; employing only experienced and expert cutters, we best appreciate how to make each dollar put in Furs return the most value.

Skillful altering and re-pairing.

The Glove Story

Subject: Men's and Boys' Gloves.

CHAPTER V.

For dress occasions, most men are satisfied with our $1.00 white kid gloves. To be sure, we sell more expensive ones.

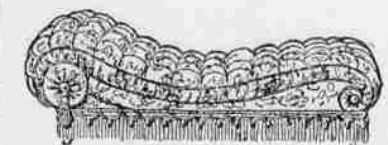

Turn to other uses, and you find excellent oil tan cape gloves at $1.00. Oil tan means tanned in fish oil. They're water proof. This same style of leather, lined and unlined, for men and boys sells at 75 cents and on down to 25 cents a pair.

Boys' dress gloves in light and heavy weight dogskin, we sell at $1.00 a pair. Also "Cadet" sizes. No use hunting New Haven for any such value as this. [To be continued.]

Once Ladies put their hands in Xavier Jouvin Gloves, there they go hand and hand through life.

Glove Counter.

Firm Furniture at weak prices finds the quickest market.

Spanish Imported Corduroy Couch, double hair stuffed, one of the finest made. Price $35.00. We show over 50 styles of Couches and Lounges in velvet, corduroy, leather, mohair, crushed plush, denim and rug. Price, $5.00 to $50.00.

Handsome furniture doesn't hinder us selling the ordinary, neither do small pieces receive less of our attention than large pieces do. Furniture, Second and Third Floors.

Black As Ebony

and brilliant as polished jet are the Wool and Mohair fancies now so much in vogue, Sterling wearers too. Price 50c. a yd. Dress Goods, Main Entrance.

and 50 other subjects at $1.38 each. They are artotypes 20 x 24 inches, in heavy fancy frames of white, bronze-green or chocolate color.

Similar subjects in size 22 x 28, heavier frames, $2.98 each. Art Room, Second Floor Front.

Thanks To Women who are so generally buying our Capes and Jackets. There could be no better testimony to right goods and right prices. We have hundreds just as good ungarnered garments for undecided reapers.

The Cloak Room.

"Shopped About Town then came back and bought Cloakings at your store." That's what one woman remarked. Our lively trade in Cloaking suggests that a good many others may have done the same thing. Comparisons not always odious.

Do we keep Blankets? Well, now—you mean do we sell them. Flannel Section.
